Paris Shows Spring Fashions

The great French couturiers, unmindful of the war that rocks the world around them, are holding their regular Spring openings. All through the season Vogue's splendid staff of Paris correspondents will gather for your benefit everything authoritative and new. With the great European fashion journals cut off, with all ordinary sources of fashion news interrupted, Vogue has become more clearly than ever before, the absolute authority on what is to be worn by the well-dressed American woman.

And remember that Vogue comes not once a month, like the ordinary magazine, but twice each month, bringing thereby not only the very latest fashion news, but twice as much of it.

Never has Vogue's unique value been so universally recognized as in the past six months of uncertainty. And this value will approach its very highest point in the next few weeks, when everyone is asking,"What shall we wear this Spring?"

To answer this very important question, don't fail to consult Vogue's

Solourners have been particularly layored this week by fine weather. After the siege of cold, inclement seather, this week with its spring-like imperatures renewed enthusiasm for subject-door life, and most of the solourners seized the opportunity and look at the Lakewood Country Club or force or rode in the parks. Saddle hiding is again coming in for its share of popularity, and bridle paths are farties with many of the devotees of reflections with many of the devotees of the seek, but the cold of the latter lake Carasaljo were new features the week caused the boat lovers.
